To celebrate its 50th anniversary, the famous Don Camilo will be gathering artists from all of the major cabarets in Paris to its stage on the rue Saints-Pères.

Famous as the stage on which great artists such as Laurent RUQUIER, Michel LEEB and Laurent GERRA did their first performances, it was also a breeding ground for the great talents of Music Hall including Charles TRENET, Thierry LE LURON and Pierre PERRET.

Gérald DAHAN, the joker who fooled footballers Raymond DOMENECH and Zinedine ZIDANE with his imitation of President Jacques CHIRAC, will be present, with Olivier LEJEUNE and many, many more, all keen to take part in a unique Don Camilo-style celebration.

Jean-Pierre DESCOMBE, Pascal CHEVALIER, Franck BRUN, DEVALS and GAUDIN, Hélène DRIVE, Olivier LEJEUNE, Thierry GARCIA, Gerald DAHAN, Cécile LAMONICA, Alex LEKOUID, Carine DAVIS, Mathieu and Jean VALLEE, all take their turn on the boards of DON CAMILO as part of the 50th anniversary celebrations of the famous Left Bank Cabaret.
